

Welcome to HISTORYGEO

Because maps reveal the land's past

Explore exclusive genealogical and local history content, including hundreds of markers for Douglas County historic sites and landmarks.

- Searchable by surname, geographical feature, place name, or county
- Maps of all first land owners in a geographic area
- Results linked to Bureau of Land Management primary sources, historic county boundary changes, current Google Maps, and DCL Archives & Local History collections
- Accessible from anywhere with a Douglas County Libraries card
- Video tutorial for First Landowners Project at www.historygeo.com

Three Databases

Move from one database to another by selecting the HistoryGeo icon near the top-left of the page.

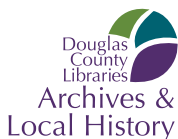

- First Landowners Project: Land patent recipients on the public land survey grid, overlaid with present-day street maps
- Place Finder + Topos: Douglas County historical sites; select markers from the right-hand sidebar to view all
- Antique Maps: Historic maps from across the United States

More to Know

- To request the addition of a new marker or to make corrections to existing markers, email us at localhistory@dclibraries.org.
- You can download and save your research, and create temporary markers. This data will be removed at the end of each day.
